

Cabinet Card; mounted on card 4 ¼ x 6 ½; appeared 1866, most popular 1875-1900; waned 1901-03; embossed artistic print popular 1894-1900; Artwork covers nearly all the back popular 1888-1900; Borders none 1866-1900; Card Edges plain 1866-1890

Front:

Johnsons, lower left; some sort of emblem center
493 Penna Avenue, lower right
Woman appearing to be in her mid 50's

Back:

F. R. Johnson's Photo Emporium
FRJ in what appears to be a scroll with a leaf
493 Penna Ave, Washington DC
Duplicates and Enlargements from this negative at any time

Received the photo from Joyce Hill (1927- ) in 1999

Believe: Aurelia Wilmarth Suit Gill (1841-1917)

Lived in NY (1855-aft 1861 & 1880), MD (aft 1861-1902) and Washington, DC (1860-61 & 1902-17)

F. R. Johnson's Photo Emporium: Could not find photo emporium

There is a Frank Johnson, age 41 b: NH, Photographer, & Mattie, age 26, b: DC, sister-in-law, Photographer; living at 809 Mark Space NW, with his brother J. Orville Johnson, age 43 b: NH, Photographer, & Emma, age 32, b: NI?, & family in 1880 Census Washington, DC, Pg 351 HQ, Census Pg 5, ED 62 (Lived in DC when children b: 1869)

The Washington Post 1 Mar 1914 pg 15 (AA Co Publ Liby Pro Quest):

"District Building Notes. Foster Causey, record clerk of the District surveyors' office, is one of the valuable and popular men of that branch of the District service. He is a native of Milford, DE, and came into the employ of the District government in 1905. He married Miss Ella Johnson, a daughter of J. Orville Johnson, once well known as a photographer in this city, and has one son. He lives in Washington. His family attends the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church.